Arkansas Firm Recalls Boneless Chicken Products Due to Misbranding and Undeclared Allergens

WASHINGTON, October 10, 2012 - Tyson Foods, Inc., a Pine Bluff, Ark. establishment, is recalling approximately 67,269 pounds of packages labeled as Honey BBQ Flavored Boneless Chicken Wyngz because of misbranding and undeclared allergens. Buffalo Style Boneless Chicken Wyngz were packaged in bags meant for Honey BBQ Flavored Boneless Chicken Wyngz and contain the allergens milk, soy and egg, which are not declared on the Honey BBQ Flavored Boneless Chicken Wyngz label, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS) announced today.

- The following product is subject to recall: [View Label] 25.5 oz. (1.59 lb.) bags of "Tyson any'tizers Boneless Chicken Wyngz Honey BBQ Flavored." Each bag bears the USDA mark of inspection. The establishment number "P13456" and the use by date "Aug 072013" or "Aug 082013" are inkjetted on the back of the bags.
- 12.75 lb. shipping cases of "Fully Cooked Boneless Chicken Wyngz Buffalo Style." Each case bears the USDA mark of inspection. The establishment number "P13456" and the use by date "Aug 07 2013" or "Aug 08 2013" are inkjetted on the cases. Identifying case codes "2202PBF0208:xx" through "2202PBF0223:xx" or "2212PBF0200:xx" through "2212PBF0223:xx," where the last four digits represent hours and minutes ("xx") in military time, also can be found inkjetted on cases subject to recall.

The products were produced on Aug. 7 and Aug. 8, 2012, and were distributed to retail stores nationwide. When available, the retail distribution list(s) will be posted on FSIS' website at www.fsis.usda.gov/FSIS\_Recalls/Open\_Federal\_Cases/index.asp.

Tyson Foods was alerted to the problem through consumer complaints. FSIS and the company have not received reports of adverse reactions due to consumption of these products. Anyone concerned about a reaction should contact a healthcare provider.

Listen to His Voice

There are a lot of lying voices that make “noise” in our world! You’ve heard them. They tell you to swap your integrity for a new sale. To barter your convictions for an easy deal. They whisper. They woo. They taunt. They flirt. They flatter.

“Go ahead, it’s okay.” “Just wait until tomorrow.” “Don’t worry, no one will know.”

The voices of the crowd! The world rams at your door. But Jesus taps at your door. Scripture says, “the sheep listen to His voice.” (John 10:2-4) The mark of a disciple of Jesus is the ability to hear the Master’s voice.

Which voice do you hear? Let me state something important. There’s never a time Jesus is not speaking. Never a place in which Jesus is not present. Never a room so dark, that the ever-present, ever-pursuing Jesus is not present.

Never! If we will but listen to His voice

A Love That Never Fails

You’re under the gun at work? You’ve got more to do than is humanly possible?

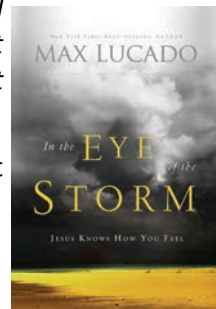

Your teenagers won’t listen? Your employees give you blank stares when you assign tasks? Believe me—Jesus knows how you feel! When you struggle, Jesus listens. When you question, he hears. He loves you with a love that never fails.

Have you noticed God doesn’t ask you to prove that you’ll put your salary to good use? Aren’t you glad that God doesn’t give you only that which you remember to thank him for? Has it been a while since you thanked God for your spleen? Me too. But I still have one!

Matthew writes that Jesus healed the sick. Not some of the sick. Not the righteous among the sick. Not the deserving among the sick. But “the sick.” Matthew 14:36 says “People brought all their sick to him and begged him to let the sick just touch the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were healed.”

God loves you. He values you. And He paid a great price for you!
