Excerpt from Nelson Mandela Inaugural Speech

“Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small does not serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine, as children do. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.”

When a Gentle Southern Grandma goes to Court

Lawyers should never ask a Mississippi grandma a question if they aren't prepared for the answer.

In a Trial, a Southern small town prosecuting attorney called for his first witness, a grandmotherly, elderly woman to the stand. He approached her and asked, "Mrs. Jones, do you know me?" She responded, "Why yes, I do know you, Mr. Williams. I've known you since you were a boy, and frankly, you've been a big disappointment to me. You lie, you cheat on your wife and you manipulate people and talk about them behind their backs. You think you're a big shot when you haven't the brains to realize you'll never amount to anything more than a two-bit paper pusher. Yes, I know you."

The lawyer was stunned. Not knowing what else to do, he pointed across the room and asked, "Mrs. Jones, do you know the defense attorney?"

She again replied, "Why yes, I do. I've known Mr. Bradley since he was a youngster, too. He's lazy, bigoted, and he has a drinking problem. He can't build a normal relationship with anyone, and his law practice is one of the worst in the entire state. Not to mention he cheated on his wife with three different women. One of them was your wife. Yes, I know him."

The defense attorney nearly died.

The judge asked both counselors to approach the bench and, in a very quiet voice, said, "If either of you idiots asks her if she knows me, I'll send you both to the electric chair!"

Songs for Praise & Worship

Welcome into this Place

Welcome into this place
Welcome into this broken vessel
You desire to abide in the praises of your people
So we lift our hands, as we lift our heart
As we offer up this praise unto your name

Creation declares Your glory
and the universe declares Your majesty;
yet You choose to abide in the praises of Your people,
so we offer up this praise unto Your name.

Lord, You are Awesome

Lord, you are awesome (x4)

If wasn't for your love
Wasn't for your grace
I don't where I'd be without you

Lord, you are awesome (x4)

You are awesome (x4)
There's nobody like you Lord (x4)

You're Awesome (x4)

Songs for Praise & Worship

I Just Want to Thank You

I just want to Praise You, Forever
And ever, and ever
For all you've done for me.
Blessing and Honor and Glory
They all belong to you.
Thank You Jesus, for blessing me.

I just want to thank You
Forever and ever and ever
For all You done for me.
Blessings and honor, and Glory,
They all belong to You;
Thank You Jesus for blessing me

Blessings and Honor, and Glory,
They all belong to You.

Thank You, Jesus for blessing me.

New License Plates Available for Decorated Military Personnel, Veterans

11/8/2012-General

Harrisburg – Members and veterans of the United States Armed Forces decorated for valor or meritorious service during a time of armed conflict can now proudly display their medal through a new series of military license plates offered by PennDOT.

"Members of our armed forces who have received these medals have proven their commitment to their fellow service men and women and to protecting our freedom under the worst of circumstances," said PennDOT Secretary Barry J. Schoch. "PennDOT is proud to recognize them once more and give them an opportunity to publicly display their distinguished honors."

PennDOT's new series of plates offers a design exhibiting one of the following military decorations: Distinguished Service Cross, Distinguished Flying Cross, Navy Cross, Air Force Cross, Silver Star, Bronze Star for Valor and Bronze Star.

Veterans and military personnel interested in these new plates can visit PennDOT's Driver and Vehicle Services website, www.dmv.state.pa.us, and select the "Military License Plates" link under the "Military Personnel/Veterans" Information Center for a complete listing of available military license plates. The page provides images of each plate and links to the appropriate application form.

In addition to these plates, PennDOT's Specialty Plate Program offers a variety of license plates including those honoring individuals who have served in the U.S. Armed Forces and in major conflicts from World War II to Operation Enduring Freedom.

The majority of military license plates can be requested by filling out Form MV-150, "Application for U.S. Military Veteran Registration Plate," which also contains instructions for applying for the plates and the respective fees.

Specialty license plates are also offered for active-duty and reserve military personnel and members of service-related organizations. A link to the listing of these license plates is also on the Military License Plates Web page, and applications must be requested through the approved organization's local representative.
