Songs for Praise & Worship

The Lord is High Above the Heavens

(The Lord is high above the heavens)
The Lord is high above the heavens
(and His glory above the nations)
and His glory above the nations.

(The Lord is high above the heavens)
The Lord is high above the heavens
(and His glory above the nations)
and His glory above the nations.

Bridge:

Give Him the highest praise
acknowledging Him always,
and all the people say...

Chorus:

Halle, Halle, Hallelujah
(Halle, Halle, Hallelujah)

Halle, Halle, Hallelujah
(Halle, Halle, Hallelujah)

I Will Bless Thee O Lord

I will bless thee O Lord
I will bless thee O Lord
With a heart Thanksgiving
I will bless thee O Lord.

With my hands lifted up
And my mouth filled with praise
With a heart of Thanksgiving
I will bless thee O Lord.

Good Work

Part of our discontent often stems from the media image that a “successful” person doesn’t need to work. While it’s true that some independently wealthy folks don’t have to work to earn an income upon which to live, they nonetheless have a job to do. You see, everyone is created for a Divine purpose, regardless of how much money is in their bank account.

Perhaps you have heard it preached or read in Scripture that work resulted from the fall of Adam and Eve in the garden when they ate the forbidden fruit. God tells Adam, “Cursed is the ground for your sake; in toil you shall eat of it all the days of your life. In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread...” (Genesis 3:17, 19) While it’s true that work took on a different meaning after the fall, it’s a mistake to believe that our first parents were with purpose prior to this incident.

From time the time that Adam and Eve were created, it’s been clear that God intended for us to be just like our Creator, productive, fruitful, and invested tasks contributing to His purposes. They were given reign over the garden and enjoyed a maximum level of fulfillment in their jobs before their selfish decision to disobey.

Then the Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to tend and keep it. Out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air; and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name.

Genesis 2:15, 19
