...Put your goodness to work, joyfully cooperate with the giftedness of those around you, and let the wind of the Spirit use you for His glory! -Joe Stowell

Lord, teach us to use our strengths in cooperation with the strengths of others. Help us to serve as one so that we might know the joy of the power of our togetherness for Your name's sake and the advance of Your kingdom.

We can accomplish more together than we can alone.

Ministry & Community Updates

Shhhh... We're Listening!

Did you know that GWM now has a internet radio presence? Go to <http://www.blogtalkradio.com/gwministries> (links are also on www.gwministries.net) to hear part of our Sunday services and Tuesday Night Discipleship Trainings. Shortly our BlogTalk Services will be available to the world on iTunes. We will be able carry Pastor's inspirational words with us everywhere on our mobile devices.

Ministry Help Wanted

As we continue to work towards the future we are looking for Saints to step into roles of leadership. We need Saints to lead and to help run our Ministries. Below is a list of Ministries that we will be “rebooting” that will need leaders and help.

Men's Ministry
Shepherd's Care
Women's Ministry
Youth Ministry - Deacon Elect Avery (leader)
MultiMedia Ministry - Brother Katzmire (leader)

Please see the listed leader if you are willing to commit to helping move forward. If you would like to volunteer to lead either the Men's or Women's Ministry, please see Pastor Avery.

Need a Lift?

We are encouraging all Saints to join Pastor Avery as he is consecrated as Overseer. Please let Sister Catherine Jones know no later than Sunday July 21, after service, if you are interested in a ride to the Consecration Service. Also, if you are willing to drive, please let Sister Jones know as well.

Bel Air Lighting Recalls Chandeliers Due to Impact Injury Hazard

Name of product: Portfolio and Transglobe nine-light chandeliers

Hazard: The mounting loop that holds the chandeliers to the ceiling can break, causing the chandelier to fall, posing an impact injury hazard to consumers.

Description: The recalled nine-light chandeliers have a two-tone antique bronze-colored metal frame with antique gold accents and champagne frosted color glass shades. The six antique gold colored lamp holders at the bottom and three at top have a floral pattern that is repeated on components at the top and bottom of the center lamp stem. Antique bronze-colored ornamental scrolling connects all the elements. The chandeliers were sold at Lowe's as Portfolio brand with item number 256047 and at other stores as Transglobe item number 2579 EBG. The item numbers are located inside the ceiling canopy of the chandelier.

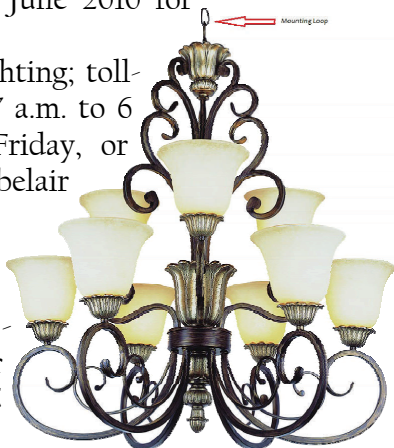

Incidents/Injuries: Bel Air has received 18 reports of the chandeliers falling from ceilings with some incidents resulting in property damage.

Remedy: Consumers should prevent people from going into the immediate area under the chandeliers. Contact Bel Air immediately to receive a free replacement mounting ring to repair the chandelier and instructions on being reimbursed for the cost of the installation.

Sold at: The Portfolio brand sold exclusively at Lowe's stores and the Transglobe brand sold at lighting stores nationwide, both from February 2007 to June 2010 for about $250.

Consumer Contact: Bel Air Lighting; toll-free at (888) 803-0509 from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. CT Monday through Friday, or online at www.regcen.com/belair for more information.

Call CPSC's Hotline Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. ET at (800) 638-2772 or CPSC's teletypewriter at (301) 595-7054. Fax CPSC (toll-free) at (855) 221-6466.

Notes:

One Sunday morning an old cowboy entered a church just before services were to begin. Although the old man and his clothes were spotlessly clean, he wore jeans, a denim shirt and boots that were very worn and ragged. In his hand he carried a worn out old hat and an equally worn out Bible. The church he entered was in a very upscale and exclusive part of the city. It was the largest and most beautiful church the old cowboy had ever seen. The people of the congregation were all dressed with expensive clothes and accessories.

As the cowboy took a seat, the others moved away from him. No one greeted, spoke to, or welcomed him. They were all appalled at his appearance and did not attempt to hide it. As the old cowboy was leaving the church, the preacher approached him and asked the cowboy to do him a favor. "Before you come back in here again, have a talk with God and ask him what he thinks would be appropriate attire for worship." The old cowboy assured the preacher he would.

The next Sunday, he showed back up for the services wearing the same ragged jeans, shirt, boots, and hat. Once again he was completely shunned and ignored. The preacher approached the man and said, "I thought I asked you to speak to God before you came back to our church." "I did," replied the old cowboy. "If you spoke to God, what did he tell you the proper attire should be for worshipping in here?" asked the preacher.

"Well, sir, God told me that He didn't have a clue what I should wear. He said He'd never been in here before."
