PennDOT Specifies Facts Regarding Transportation Funding

11/21/2013-

Harrisburg – As the impact of the state's proposed Transportation Funding plan is discussed, PennDOT Secretary Barry J. Schoch urges that these facts be referenced:

- The financing phases in over a five-year period. It is misleading to ignore this fact when gauging the plan's impact. The plan does not include an immediate increase of 28 cents per gallon, as has been reported. Such an estimate is based on the wholesale price of fuel in 2018. It is not possible to predict the price per gallon five years from now.
- The plan eliminates the 12 cent-a-gallon liquid fuels tax. Under this proposal, all gas tax revenues are generated at the wholesale level.
- Competitive situations and the cost of crude oil have the largest impact on the price per gallon. Even with this revenue enhancement in place, the average driver would only pay about $2.50 more a week in the fifth year of the plan, less than the cost of one gallon of gas. In return, the commonwealth will receive $2.3 to $2.4 billion in transportation improvements.
- Comparison of gas tax rates with other states is not a fair assessment since many states use other funding sources to pay for highways and bridges, so they keep their rates artificially low. In Pennsylvania, fuel taxes are used only for highway and bridge-related purposes and state police patrol functions. Income and sales taxes are not used to pay for state-maintained highways and bridges in Pennsylvania. The fuel taxes in Pennsylvania amount to a true users' fee, based on the amount of gasoline consumed and use of the highway and bridge system.
- Pennsylvania's vehicle registration fees are among the lowest in the with 39 states charging more. Also, 31 states charge more for the cost of a driver's license.

What we do is in the Lord... this helps us understand our position. We serve from a place of rest and grace, and not from a place of striving or placing confidence in the flesh.

But whatever I am now, it is all because God poured out his special favor on me—and not without results. For I have worked harder than any of the other apostles; yet it was not I but God who was working through me by his grace. 1 Corinthians 15:10 NLT

As God's people, one of the privileges we have is to serve Him and make Him known in our generation. Our labor is a labor of love and here are a few "little words" that can help bring understanding to the serving we do...

What we do is for the Lord...this helps us understand our mission. All we do, we do in obedience to His will and calling upon our lives, and not because of our ambition or personal agenda.

What we do is unto the Lord... this helps us understand our motivation. All we do is to please Him and bring Him glory, instead of seeking to please others.

What we do is with the Lord... this helps us understand our assignment. All we do is as co-laborers with the Lord, and not as independent servants.

What we do is because of the Lord... this helps us understand our stewardship. All we do is in His vineyard. It is His work and His ministry, not our ministry or our work.

What we do is in the Lord... this helps us understand our position. We serve from a place of rest and grace, and not from a place of striving or placing confidence in the flesh.

What we do is by the Lord... this helps us understand our source. All we have comes from Him, and without Him we would be empty vessels with nothing to give.

What we do is through the Lord... this helps us understand our effectiveness. We serve with the strength and the power which He supplies, understanding that it is not by human might or power, but by the Lord's Spirit, that He does His work.

Because You Can't Take it With You: Estate
Planning for Today and Tomorrow

12/12/2013 - 6:00 to 8:30 PM

Chester County Library, Struble Room,
450 Exton Square Parkway, Exton, PA
Kristen Cassidy, 610-280-2642

Estate planning involves making plans to protect your loved ones and your property during your lifetime and after death. This includes: Providing detailed instructions and authority so someone you trust can handle your affairs according to your wishes in the event of your disability or death; Making sure your property is protected and transferred to the beneficiaries you choose; Minimizing taxes on your estate ; Assigning guardians for minor children, if any.

At this session you will learn the intricacies of estate planning and how it can impact your life, whether young or old. We will be joined by two speakers:

Anna Davis, Registered Financial Manager with Western & Southern, has 17 years experience in financial services and her M.B.A from Widener University.

Jennifer Walker is an estate planning attorney with Peak Legal Group in West Chester. She offers a full range of estate planning services for individuals, families and small businesses that includes wills and trusts, tax avoidance planning, long-term care/Medicaid planning, probate and estate administration, special needs trusts, and business succession planning.
