Thank You for surrounding me with Your favor as a protection; with Your glory as an adornment; with Your wisdom as words of life; with Your generosity as a gift of goodness; with Your blessings as a downpour of joy.

-Roy Lessin, meetmeinthemeadow.com

I entreated Your favor with my whole heart. Psalm 119:58 NKJV

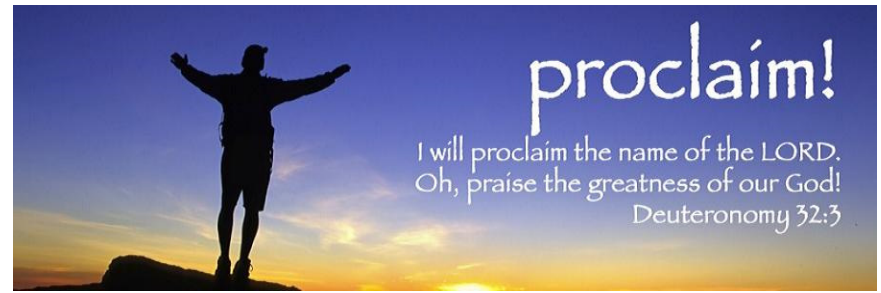

Father, thank You for the blessing of Your favor upon my life! Thank You that Your blessings come to me abundantly, unexpectedly, delightfully— like showers from heaven, like the dew upon dry ground, like rivers flowing through a thirsty land. Your blessings are mine through Your promises, by Your Spirit, and in Your Son, through whom I have become an heir of all that heaven has to give.

Thank You for all Your favors— the joys of Your holiness, the touch of Your gentleness, the sweetness of Your nearness, the care of Your kindness, the grace of Your loveliness. Thank You for opening doors that no one could shut, for saying “no” to pathways that would have led me away from Your will, for Your amazing timing, and for the people You brought into my life to pray, to help, and to encourage me in my walk with You.

Thank You for surrounding me with Your favor as a protection; with Your glory as an adornment; with Your wisdom as words of life; with Your generosity as a gift of goodness; with Your blessings as a downpour of joy.

Thank You for the way You influence my heart, draw my spirit, and delight my soul. Your gracious generosity will keep me forever grateful!

Grateful Prayer Brings Peace

by Rick Warren

"Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace." (Philippians 4:6-7a NLT)

In Philippians 4:6-7 we find one of the most difficult verses in the entire Bible to obey: "Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace" (NLT).

It's not easy to stop worrying about the often-scary, everyday parts of our lives, but God tells us how in the next part of the verse: "pray about everything ... thank him for all he has done." Grateful prayer brings peace. God says, when you start to worry, pray.

Parents understand the power of grateful prayers. Most parents wouldn't appreciate their children always making requests without saying "thank you" for what they've already received. God sees it the same way. He wants us to ask him for what we need and want. More than 20 times in the New Testament, we're told to "ask" him. But he wants us to ask with gratefulness.

The Bible urges us to be specific in our requests — and our praises. Instead of a simple "thank you for everything," he wants us to tell him what we're grateful for. When I say to my wife, "I'm so grateful for you," she tells me to be specific. She likes to hear what I appreciate about her and what I'm grateful for about her.

God wants to hear the same things. So when you pray, tell God what you're thankful for. Prayer is one of the most important ways we tell God "thank you."

Thanking God in advance is a big step of faith. The Bible says that when we have the faith to thank God ahead of time, miracles happen. The more thankful we are, the more God works in our lives. The Bible says that God inhabits the praise of his people. He empowers and uses our thanksgiving as an instrument of power in our lives.

Talk It Over

- Why do you think gratitude is so important for our spiritual lives?
- Being as specific as possible, for what are you thankful to God? Spend some time in prayer, thanking God for those things.
- What are some ways you believe God will bless you in the future? Thank God for those things — even before they happen.

Because You Can't Take it With You: Estate Planning for Today and Tomorrow

12/12/2013 - 6:00 to 8:30 PM

Chester County Library, Struble Room,
450 Exton Square Parkway, Exton, PA
Kristen Cassidy, 610-280-2642

Estate planning involves making plans to protect your loved ones and your property during your lifetime and after death. This includes: Providing detailed instructions and authority so someone you trust can handle your affairs according to your wishes in the event of your disability or death; Making sure your property is protected and transferred to the beneficiaries you choose; Minimizing taxes on your estate ; Assigning guardians for minor children, if any.

At this session you will learn the intricacies of estate planning and how it can impact your life, whether young or old. We will be joined by two speakers:

Anna Davis, Registered Financial Manager with Western & Southern, has 17 years experience in financial services and her M.B.A from Widener University.

Jennifer Walker is an estate planning attorney with Peak Legal Group in West Chester. She offers a full range of estate planning services for individuals, families and small businesses that includes wills and trusts, tax avoidance planning, long-term care/Medicaid planning, probate and estate administration, special needs trusts, and business succession planning.

Thanksgiving Blessings

Praying you are...

Blessed in a way that brings God's presence closer than you have ever known it...

Blessed in a way that assures you of the plans He has for your life...

Blessed in a way that fills your heart with a thousand "thank-yous" for all that His hand will bring your way.

May the Lord continually BLESS YOU with Heaven's blessings as well as with human joys. Psalm 128:5 TLB
