Hospitality

Contribute to the needs of God's people; pursue the practice of hospitality. Romans 12:13 AMP

Shortly after my wife and I were married, we spent some time living in Mexico. During one of our visits to a village in the back-country, she was to learn a very valuable lesson that would change her attitude concerning hospitality in the future...

In her own words, here is a brief account of that moment:

"Hospitality was a ministry I was sure the Lord had called me to, but one day I found myself complaining within my heart, 'I can't invite people over because we have water stains on our drapes, plus I hate the color of the carpeting. Besides, none of our plates match!' It was then the Lord brought to my heart the memory of the following experience...

I once sat in a mud brick home with dirt floors in a poor village in Mexico. I was served a delicious meal of beans and tortillas off of enamel plates as I sat on bricks for a chair.

It's one of the most remembered meals I've experienced, as the Presence of the Lord filled that place, and the radiance of the hostess expressed His love.

In the midst of extreme poverty I was served as graciously as if I had been in a royal palace – the sweetness of the Holy Spirit ministered to me so greatly it didn't matter if it was bricks or a satin covered chair I sat on!

It was a life changing experience as I realized that it's not my carpets or drapes or china that would minister to people, but it's the Presence of the Lord that ministers."
