God Gives You Abilities to Help Others

by Rick Warren

"Now you belong to him who was raised from death in order that we might be useful in the service of God." (Romans 7:4b TEV)

God created you to help others. Regardless of your job or career, you are called to full-time Christian service. A "non-serving Christian" is a contradiction in terms.

The Bible says, "He saved us and called us to be his own people, not because of what we have done, but because of his own purpose" (2 Timothy 1:9a TEV).

Peter adds, "You were chosen to tell about the excellent qualities of God, who called you" (1 Peter 2:9b GW).

Growing up, you may have thought that being called by God was something only missionaries, pastors, nuns, and other full-time church workers experienced, but the Bible says every Christian is called to service.

When you use your God-given abilities to help others, you are fulfilling your calling. The Bible says, "Now you belong to him who was raised from death in order that we might be useful in the service of God" (Romans 7:4b TEV).

Talk It Over

- How are you using your God-given abilities to help others?
- What is God calling you to do that you've thought you were not qualified to do?
- How can you encourage other people in your small group, church, or community of believers to serve in ministry?

GWM Vacation Bible Study
