Take Your Doubts Captive

When we start the process of renewing our minds, it's OK when we mess up. God knows we're not perfect and He's always there to help us get back on track.

Unfortunately, the devil also knows we're not perfect, and he does his best to remind us every step of the way.

We can be going along, serving God, doing good, stepping out in faith and then all of a sudden, without there being any justification for it, we'll have a day or week when we have an attack on our mind. Satan will tell us that we're failures, that we're not good enough, that God doesn't love us, the list goes on and on.

Thankfully, God's Word tells us just what to do in a situation like this. Second Corinthians 10:5 tells us to take every thought captive and into obedience to God. So when the devil tries to lie to you, go to the Word and find the truth that refutes that lie.

When those doubts come your way, don't get discouraged. Bring them in line with God's Word. It works every time!

Prayer Starter: God, I won't let the lies and doubts that the enemy sends my way get me off track. Instead, I'll believe what Your Word says and take those thoughts captive!

2 Corinthians 10:5

We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

Suicide...

No Longer Taboo, but a Present Reality

Tuesday, August 26, 2014

7:30 to 8:45 pm

Hosted by Greater Works Ministries

This seminar will address the all important role of leaders, pastors, religious educators, and others who work and interact with people, in helping individuals who experience hopelessness, helplessness, and despair that result in thoughts of harming self or taking one's own life. Statistics show that among younger generations, suicide is a growing trend and a leading cause of death. Consequently, it is becoming a growing issue in the religious context, while there is a lack of training among clergy on how to appropriately deal with such cases. This workshop will highlight the importance of adequate and appropriate training of clergy and helping ministries, define and conceptualize mental illnesses that are highly correlated with suicidal ideation from a spiritual perspective, teach the basics of suicide risk assessment, and provide a basic protocol and resources to safeguard the ministry and ministry leaders from legal and ethical liabilities.

Dr. Rayvann Kee II is a clinical and organizational psychologist, entrepreneur, and minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ. He has traveled extensively preaching the kingdom of God and teaching biblical principles pertaining to God's desire for people spiritually, physically, psychologically, financially, professionally, and personally. He holds interests in executive assessment and coaching, servant-leadership development, minority mental health, spirituality and psychotherapy, and psychology in primary care. He serves as an associate minister, director of missions and outreach, director of men's ministry, and a Sunday school teacher at the Pentecostal Faith Assembly Church, under the leadership of Suffragan Bishop Brenda Cuthbertson. Most importantly, he is a young man who loves the Lord.
