Thank You

“Dear friends, you always followed my instructions when I was with you. And now that I am away, it is even more important. Work hard to show the results of your salvation, obeying God with deep reverence and fear.”

Philippians 2:12 NLT

As we approach the last phase of 2014, I want to convey my heart-felt thanks to each of you for your commitment, faithfulness and obedience to the work of the Lord during my absences. While away last weekend, I was asked about your level of comfort when I am away, and my reply was, “I am grateful and thankful to Pastor a mature and cooperative family of believers“. It does my heart good to know that I can be free to represent our ministry while engaged in organizational and ministry efforts, and know that the members of Greater Works Ministries are serving in a spirit of excellence and obedience to their Pastor.

I solicit your prayers as there will be more opportunities for each of you to display such obedience and compliance to my direction and instruction in the days and months to come. Your support and cooperation mean so much when I am present, but carry an even greater level of appreciation in my absence. Thank you for making me proud as your Pastor.

Blessings,
C Mark Avery

Suicide...

No Longer Taboo, but a Present Reality

Tuesday, August 26, 2014

7:30 to 8:45 pm

Hosted by Greater Works Ministries

This seminar will address the all important role of leaders, pastors, religious educators, and others who work and interact with people, in helping individuals who experience hopelessness, helplessness, and despair that result in thoughts of harming self or taking one's own life. Statistics show that among younger generations, suicide is a growing trend and a leading cause of death. Consequently, it is becoming a growing issue in the religious context, while there is a lack of training among clergy on how to appropriately deal with such cases. This workshop will highlight the importance of adequate and appropriate training of clergy and helping ministries, define and conceptualize mental illnesses that are highly correlated with suicidal ideation from a spiritual perspective, teach the basics of suicide risk assessment, and provide a basic protocol and resources to safeguard the ministry and ministry leaders from legal and ethical liabilities.

Dr. Rayvann Kee II is a clinical and organizational psychologist, entrepreneur, and minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ. He has traveled extensively preaching the kingdom of God and teaching biblical principles pertaining to God's desire for people spiritually, physically, psychologically, financially, professionally, and personally. He holds interests in executive assessment and coaching, servant-leadership development, minority mental health, spirituality and psychotherapy, and psychology in primary care. He serves as an associate minister, director of missions and outreach, director of men's ministry, and a Sunday school teacher at the Pentecostal Faith Assembly Church, under the leadership of Suffragan Bishop Brenda Cuthbertson. Most importantly, he is a young man who loves the Lord.
