How Well Do You Know Pastor Avery?

It's Pastor Appreciation Month and we will continue asking some questions about Pastor Avery. The answers will be somewhere in the bulletin. So here we go... how well do we know Pastor Avery?

- 1. What is Pastor's favorite time of the year?
- 2. What is Pastor's favorite holiday?
- 3. What is Pastor's favorite fruit?

That's it. Now find the answers and see how well you did.

Prayer for the Week:

Merciful God, even as I continue to make mistakes and struggle with regrets, help me break old sinful patterns and let go of shame, so that the light of your love will shine more fully through this weak clay jar (2 Cor. 4:7).

Notes:

Hope at Halftime

Following the God of Second Chances

Key Bible Verse: O Lord, you are so good, so ready to forgive, so full of unfailing love for all who ask for your help. (Psalm 86:5)

Dig Deeper: Psalm 86

Halftime [in football] is a time to evaluate how things have been going and to decide what adjustments need to be made for the rest of the game.

The first half of any football game is important, but it is not determinative. Numerous teams over the years were ahead at halftime only to eventually lose the game. And numerous teams were losing at halftime, but by the time the game ended, they had turned things around. Until the final whistle is blown, the game is still up for grabs.

The same is true in life. You might be in your first or second quarter or heading into halftime, but if you are still here, the game of life is not over. Your clock is still ticking. There is plenty of life yet to live. Not only that, but your first half doesn't have to determine the outcome of the game.

Maybe you've made mistakes and poor decisions; perhaps you've experienced many disappointments and failures. But you are still here. And as long as you're still here, the whistle has not blown and it is not too late for God to take you straight to the plan he has for you.
