How Well Do You Know Pastor Avery?

It's Pastor Appreciation Month and we will continue asking some questions about Pastor Avery. The answers will be somewhere in the bulletin. So here we go... how well do we know Pastor Avery?

1. Who is Pastor's favorite current gospel artist?
2. What is Pastor's favorite fish?
3. Who is Pastor's favorite Christian author?

That's it. Now find the answers and see how well you did. (Last weeks answer's are hidden too.)

12 Times to Hold Your Tongue

1. When you have a criticism about a church service or ministry leader. It will only be destructive to call someone else's attention to you've noticed.
2. When you are tempted to say "I told you so."
3. When you want to complain about the weather, the traffic, your spouse, your kids ... anything. Think about how grumbling affects others, and choose to focus on the positive.
4. When you're criticized. A response may be called for, but it is usually best not to give it in the heat of the moment.
5. When you have information that makes someone look bad.
6. When someone is upset about something and you've had a similar experience. Relate it only if your objective is to pass on something you learned, not just to shift the focus of the conversation to yourself.
7. When you're tempted to criticize someone.
8. When a friend's situation would make a great point in the conversation but you don't have permission to share it with others. Even if you don't use the person's name, you are treading on dangerous ground.
9. When you're tempted to correct someone on a minor point as he relates a story or experience.
10. When you think someone has made a poor decision, but it's too late for him to change his mind. And in most cases, be silent when people haven't asked for your opinion about what they should do.
11. When you're tempted to tell something about yourself for the purpose of impressing someone.
12. When you have information that might discourage others. Don't tell labor horror stories to a pregnant woman, and don't mention that someone you know died from the disease that your friend or friend's family member has just contracted.
