Reflections from Pastor Avery

"It's a new season,
it's a new day
A fresh anointing,
coming my way
It's a season of power,
and prosperity
It's a new season,
coming to me."

These words serve as the expressions of my heart as we rejoice in seeing the start of a brand new year. I have to admit that my level of excitement and enthusiasm is extremely high. Although there were several challenges that we have had to face, God has remained faithful and true to His word.

This year we are embarking upon some unique endeavors in our kingdom building pursuits. First, we would like to extend a warm welcome to Pastor Gilbert Fuentes and his congregation as they worship in our facility. Please know that we are just as excited about hosting you as you are in worshipping here at Greater Works. Second, I would like to officially welcome Yvonne Wolfe, Elsie Reeves, and James Miller to our Leadership team. In addition, I would like to offer my congratulations to Alicia Hicks in her new assignment as Chief Ministry Director. Thanks for your willingness to assist us in implementing strategy to propel the house toward consistent excellence in our service ministries.

Finally, I am excited about the vast possibilities that lay before us to impact our community in a much greater way. The revamping of our Multi-Media ministry promises to offer some challenges, but the outcome promises to be both rewarding and gratifying. Our aim is to touch many more souls through strategic and intentional means. My prayer is that we, "Make his presence known."

We welcome your input, ideas and suggestions that would enable us to serve in an effective and productive manner. God's choicest blessings to you and yours in the year of 2007.

Agape',
C. Mark Avery, Pastor

Scripture of the Month

"For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us."

Romans 8:18

Words from First Lady Cheryl Avery

GOD IS JUST AWESOME!!

God has blessed Greater Works in 2006 by providing us with numerous opportunities to hear the word through various ministers and through prophecy. He also showed us his healing power. Some have come and some have gone, but the Lord has still proven to be faithful.

There is an excitement in the air! Let's look to this New Year with great anticipation, expecting nothing but God's best for us. Let's continue to stick together in love and stay focused, because "united we stand." Continue to hold up the arms of our Pastor as he continues to lead us onward and upward.

Have a Happy and Blessed New Year!

Lady Avery

When I See Jesus...

By Carlton Chilton, Jr.

The smell of fried chicken and green beans seasoned with pork ascending into the sanctuary flooded my memory when the news that "Mom" Henry had passed. Oh yes, I suppose my first thoughts actually were one of shock and awe, but then I realized that there was a stronger emotion – a feeling of joy and happiness.

Sister Patricia Henry, or "Mom Henry" as she was affectionately known, was one of the main reasons why the memory of Sunday dinner being prepared at Church first entered my mind. There was Sister Henry and Sister Gilchrist and I was helped to remember that Brother Crooms was there, too. I was very young then, but I do remember always enjoying Sunday dinner at church, even if that meant having to stay for another service. I was not saved then... or maybe I was. Janet Ford reminded me how Mom Henry would always put a plate aside for Tommy, Jr., while my cousin recalls enjoying her potato salad.

My first memory of Mother Henry was of her coming up stairs into the sanctuary, pulling off her apron to sing. Mom Henry's talent was a complete polar opposite of her personality. Mom Henry presented herself in such a humble and personable way. Her simple request that we "pray for her strength in the Lord" then "Mom" would open her mouth to sing and a sound would emerge that was so bold that it made you take notice. It made me sit up, and I tell you the truth and lie not, I got goose bumps when she uttered the first lines "I've had some good days...". One might say that the sound was bold and almost arrogant, but it was not arrogance, it was confidence. Mom

She sang of those "dreary days and lonely nights of clouds that hung so low you could hardly see the road". On more than a few occasions Mom sang tears into the eyes of those who connecting with her message in song. Yeah, I am feeling a bit weepy right now as I must reconcile the idea that I will not hear her sing that song again.

Some may fancy the idea that Mom Henry is now leading songs in the Heavenly Chorus along with the likes of Mahalia Jackson and many other Gospel greats that have passed over into glory. However, I choose to hold to the idea that Mother Henry, who served so well and faithfully, is at rest in the arms of her Lord. She is in the very arms of He of whom she sang so masterfully. I might add that in all of the renditions of all the songs Mom has ever sung, there is one song to which she must now amend the tense. No longer can she sing "when I see Jesus", but should say "now that I see Jesus...Amen".

Mother Patricia Henry's voice and her songs will continuously play on in the hearts and minds of all those she ever touched.

For the honor of having known her I thank you Lord!

Reflections and Renewal

By Alicia Hicks

Many people take time at the beginning of each year to make New Year's resolutions. This year why not take time out for Reflection.

- Reflect on the blessings you experienced in 2006, and maintain praises in your heart.
- Reflect on the things in your life that you can improve, and commit to change.
- Reflect on God's faithfulness to you, and your faithfulness to him.
- Reflect on 2007, and renew your commitment to Christ, and reflect on Him.
- Reflect and be continuously thankful for God's commitment to loving you.
- Reflect on your goals, and make steps to accomplish them.
- Reflect on your family and friends, and commit to loving them unconditionally.
- Reflect on Christ, and commit to doing your part in building His kingdom.
- Reflect on your God given purpose in life, and fulfill it!
- Reflect on your community, and commit to participate in ways to make it better.

"I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Phl 4:13

Bishop Reeves Fires Up Greater Works

Bishop Marvin Reeves and Christ Community Worship Center's visit Greater Works Ministries, Sunday, December 10, 2006

The last evening celebration of the year was one that was both inspiring and meaningful. Bishop Marvin Reeves, pastor of Christ Community Worship Center, and a large contingency, blessed us tremendously. We were blessed by the music ministry, and more importantly the rich, insightful and thought provoking Word of God.

Bishop Reeves masterfully and

Bishop Marvin Reeves

passionately spoke concerning the deception of "Hype ministry" that is affecting the body in diverse ways. He shed light on the importance of staying grounded to biblical truths and not falling prey to the excitement of new revelations that many preachers, evangelists and ministers are promoting. The gist of his message centered on the spirit of Jezebel that many Pastors and leaders are being influenced by. He stressed on more than one occasion of the importance of the Shepherd guarding his flock from false doctrines and teachings that are diametrically opposed to the Word of God. A strong message with a word of warning for the true believer.

We thank God for the love and devotion demonstrated by our brothers and sisters from Williamsport, PA. This service left an indelible mark on all who were privileged to be in attendance.

Stay Informed—PennDot Regulations

NEW LAW REQUIRES MOTORISTS TO TURN ON HEAD-LIGHTS WHEN USING WIPERS
12/01/2006

HARRISBURG - The Department of Transportation announced today that a new law, which goes into effect in January, will require motorists to turn on their headlights anytime their vehicles wipers are in continuous or intermittent use due to weather or other atmospheric conditions such as fog or mist.

Motorists who do not comply with the law could face a fine of $25, but with fees and other associated costs, the penalty would approach $100.

PENNDOT REMINDS MOTORISTS TO REMOVE SNOW, ICE FROM VEHICLES BEFORE TRAVELING

11/02/2006

New Law Imposes Heavy Fines for Incidents Causing Injury or Death

HARRISBURG - The Department of Transportation is reminding motorists that under a new state law, they will face severe fines if snow or ice that falls from their vehicle causes injury or death to other motorists or pedestrians.

"We've urged motorists to remove all ice and snow from their vehicles before traveling for years. Not only for their own safety, but for the safety of all motorists," said PennDOT Secretary Allen D. Biehler, P.E. "We hope motorists will take this advice all the more seriously now that the new law is in place."

Enacted in May, Act 37 states that when snow or ice is dislodged or falls from a moving vehicle and strikes another vehicle or pedestrian causing death or serious bodily injury, the operator of the vehicle from which the snow or ice came is subject to a fine of $200 to $1,000 for each offense.

For Your Health—Is It a Cold or the Flu?

The cold and the flu are both respiratory illnesses, but they are caused by different types of viruses. Flu symptoms usually come on quickly (within 3-6 hours) and the symptoms can be mild to severe without much notice. Be aware of your body.

Cold symptoms are less severe and the symptoms usually begin in 2-3 days, during this time you are contagious, though the symptoms may take a week to fully develop. There are over 200 viruses that may cause a cold, but generally after 7-10 days you are usually not contagious and you should begin to feel better.

Symptoms	Cold	Flu
Fever	Rare	Usual; high (100° F-102°F or higher, especially in young children)
Headache	Rare	Common
General aches and pains	Slight	Usual; often severe
Extreme Exhaustion	Never	Usual; at the beginning of the illness
Stuffy Nose	Common	Sometimes
Sneezing	Usual	Sometimes
Sore Throat	Common	Sometimes
Chest Discomfort, Cough	Mild to moderate; hacking cough	Common; can become severe
Treatment	Antihistamines, decongestant, Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory medications - NO ANTIBIOTICS	Antiviral medicines - see your primary care doctor
Prevention	WASH YOUR HANDS often and for 20 seconds - the time it takes to sing the Happy Birthday song twice, cough onto elbows, arms and not hands	Annual vaccinations
Complications	Sinus congestion, middle ear infections, aggravation of asthma	Bronchitis, pneumonia and can be life threatening

Greater Works Ministries Annual Christmas Fellowship

By Sister Leslie Tinnin

Hosted by Hospitality Ministry, once again this year members decided to meet outside the walls of the church to take pleasure in a meal and each other while enjoying the season. The Christmas gathering was on Sunday, December 3, 2006 at the lovely Hilton Garden Inn in Kennett Square Pennsylvania.

Fellowship started at 4:00 pm and dinner started at about 5:00 pm. As everyone filed into the room, leaving no empty seats, you could hear Christmas music wafting through the background.

Folks chatted, laughed and joked and, after a greeting by Sister Margaret Hicks and a blessing of the meal by Elder McKim, it was time for more serious business - eating delightful dinner.

After dinner there were amusing games hosted by Sister Hicks. Brother Chandler Avery (one of our multi talented youth) performed "Silent Night" on his trumpet while everyone sang along. Sister Leslie Tinnin performed a moving a cappella version of the "The Lords Prayer".

As our time together came to an end Pastor Mark Avery gave a closing prayer, folks lingered for a while just chatting, deriving pleasure from each other's company. The Hospitality Ministry thanks everyone for making another year a success and looks forward to gathering again next year.

A special thank you to Sister Alicia Hicks and Sister Margaret Hicks for their work in pulling this together.

The Greater Works Ministries Mass Choir Performs

By Sister Leslie Tinnin

The Greater Works Ministries Mass choir began rehearsing Thursday evenings in early November to prepare for their annual Christmas performances. Then, on the chilly Saturday evening of December

2, 2006, the choir members of Greater Works Ministries (GWM) ventured out to London Grove Friends Meeting Hall for fellowship and song as they have done during the holiday season now for more than 13 years. The evening started off with prayer and then sharing of a meal offered by our hosts.

Members of the congregations of both Friends Meeting Hall and Greater Works Ministries more than adequately represented their respective houses of worship, filling up the room to listen to the voices of the choir members and receiving what some might call a royal treat. We offer up our prayers to our Minister of Music, Elder Rufus Peterson, who was unable to be with us this year. The choir was blessed with the skills of Sister Elaine Warren at the piano. She was accompanied by her husband Deacon Ervin Warren on bass guitar and Brother Chandler Avery on drums. Brother Chandler has graciously taken up where his elder brother Mark has left off while attending college.

As the room filled with anticipation, under the tutelage of Lady Cheryl Avery, the choir sang their first notes and the rest, as they say, is history. Christmas carols and songs of praise and worship overflowed in the hall. There were solos by Sister Alicia Hicks whose angelic voice gave song to "Silent Night." Sister Suzie Miller offered us "Praise Him", moving us to tears, while Sister Leslie Tinnin sang "Holy Night." And least we forget Elder McKim who led the group in several songs such as "Wonderful Counselor" rocking the house in Jesus name.

It was obvious to those present that our hosts who we know worship silently, were feeling the spirit as was evidenced by their hands clapping and they rose from their seats. Before the closing prayers, GWM choir performed "Here I am to Worship", a song we were told is one of Pastor Avery's favorites, with solo again by Sister Tinnin. There after, GWM Pastor Mark Avery spoke and led altar call that seemed to last for hours as those present could feel an atmosphere of serenity engulf the room. One by one and two by two people came up for prayer while the choir continued softly in the background. What a wonderful time of fellowship was had by all present.

On the following Saturday of December 9, 2006, through invitation of a Boscov's department store manager, Fran Rush, the choir members went to Concord Mall in North Wilmington, Delaware and gathered to repeat their performance. Passers by stopped and took time out their busy schedules to listen and enjoy the voices of the choir and even sing along in some instances. A gentleman dressed as Santa Claus also paused to hear the angelic voices of the choir. As one member was told by a shopper, "It is nice to hear the name of Jesus in the mall."

The choir wishes to give great thanks to Lady Cheryl Avery for all her hard work, efforts and dedication. Alleluia!

Thank You

As we start the New Year of 2007 Pastor C. Mark Avery and the members of Greater Works Ministries wish to thank Brother David Katzmire and Sister Tacie Himelright for all their dedication and labor to making our web site and newsletter, something we are so proud of. May God continue to bless you with the talents and gifts you have shared with us while we continue to grow in our Multi Media Ministry.

The essence of everything on earth, seen and unseen, is spiritual. On entering the invisible city, my body is covered by my spirit. Who so seeks to cleave the body from the spirit, or the spirit from the body is turning his heart away from the truth. The flower and its fragrance are one; they are blind who deny the color and the image of the flower, saying that it possesses only a fragrance vibrating in the ether. They are like those, deficient in the sense of smell, to whom flowers are nought but shapes and hues without fragrance.

Everything in creation exists within you, and everything in you exists in creation. You are in borderless touch with the closet things, and what is more, distance is to not sufficient to separate you from things far away. All things from the lowest to the loftiest, from the smallest to the greatest, exist within you as equal things. In one atom are found all the elements of the earth. One drop of water contains all the secrets of the oceans. In one motion of the mind are found all the laws of existence.

God has placed in each soul an apostle to lead us upon the illuminated path. Yet many seek life from without, unaware that it is within them.
